

To determine if your insurance covers EEG biofeedback (Neurofeedback) and Quantitative EEG (QEEG), it will be necessary for you to call your provider directly. To aid you in this process, we have prepared this document as a guide.

- For my records, please write YOUR name below:

My Name:

---

PREPARING FOR YOUR CALL

Before calling you will need:

1. A diagnosis code from your therapist. For example, the diagnosis code for Attention Deficit Disorder is 314.0.
2. Your insurance card
3. A pen or pencil
4. This form in front of you to ask questions from.

My Diagnosis Code:

---

Write your Diagnosis Code here

Remember: You are the customer. You have a right to this information and to be treated politely and with patience.

MAKING THE CALL

First... Have your insurance card ready! Then, Make a note of the Date and Time:

Date and Time of my Call:

---

- When an insurance representative answers, begin by saying:

“I’m calling to find out what coverage I have for a series of services provided by a licensed psychologist, Dr. Merlyn Hurd, who does not have a special provider relationship with your company.”

- The representative will ask for your name, group number and agreement number.

- The representative may ask what is the diagnosis. If they do, say,

“The diagnosis is [your diagnosis code from above]. I understand that this is considered a medical diagnosis.”

- After you answer all the representative’s questions, ask:

“To whom am I speaking?”

Write down the representative’s name:

Services and Codes Covered

- Next, the representative will ask what procedures are going to be performed. If the representative does not ask, tell them:

“I have questions about my coverage for a number of procedures. Let me give you the codes.”
